A Card.—By way of assisting me in keeping my bule es before the people, the croskers (a very an merous and pertinacious triol, have been for sonal time past running about the city, shaking their sapient heads and reporting I had failed. If I had not been so situated that the run result not affect my interests I should have on tradicted it long age, but as the faileshood was harmless I let it pass, as I have permitted hundreds of libels upon me to pass in my lifetime, as not worth the station y accessing to contradict it. My only exameter posticings now is that it gives me a neat and aboropriate opportunite of station, by way of reply, that I have just opened the fails season at the Bazar, in the St. Nimolas littel, at d at my hat afore 214 Broadway, with accessive, costly and varies; stools of new goods, in about a dogen different lines of basiness, cancested with heise, gentlement, and children's examine. Not being of opinion that the world will "burst up?" in May next, as precideted by the fillerites, and thinking it likely that while it exists clotting will be worn in one manner with public in clies ition and sentiment, as well as in compliance with the statue, I feel quite contident of a busy and prefitable season. In the meantime that comprehensive class who mind other people's business and draw upon their imaginations for the facts, are respectfully invited (with it e rest of the acmmunity) to my ap turn and down town stores, where they will have an opportunity of seeing larger and more respectable audiences than it is usually their to to meet with.
